TED KERR, Business Manager

DEDICATION

To him whose strength of character and unselfish sacrifice in the advancement of our school, and whose wise guidance and consistent example of Christianity has been a source of inspiration, to our deeply appreciated PROFESSOR LINFORD A. MARQUART, this volume of the AURORA is sincerely dedicated.

FOREWORD

The pages of the 1946 Aurora present an effort to portray both pictorially and editorially the student life of Olivet. We have hoped to preserve for the future the memories of our undergraduate experience, memories of good days spent here—with friends—with books—with nature, with God. Our motto, Justice and Truth, has been used in the hope that it will serve to make the students more conscious of the purpose for which this institution was founded. The thought is Olivet; the verdict is yours.

Truth

Somberly enduring the wear interposed by migrant students, the administration building stands in deep, friendly tranquillity.

The girls' dormitory dominates the campus with auspicious dignity suggestive of strength and security.

Within these rooms school life is a metamorphosis of home life; and studying is compatible with repartee.

The dormitory lobby, whose very walls shine with dreams, aspirations, and illusions.

The office of the Dean of Women, where Miss Pitts reigns in her sphere of efficiency without flaw.

China and silver, aromas and dinner conversation that tempt the student from his books to dust off his social graces.

Sitting high and lifted up in regal state is the Dining Hall, its vine-covered walls a building with enchantment fraught.

The home of athletic enthusiasm where students go in search of worthwhile diversion from mental exhaustion; here strength excels all else.

Nature's winter design is impartially drawn on every nook and cranny as the barometer records in its own manuscript.

Hereon are written the chronicles of the sportsman; the battle done, triumph mingled with defeat.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings to Our Many Friends:

Our great school is a product of our people and exists primarily for our Nazarene youth. Our students are motivated by an inner conviction for service.

Each member of our faculty appreciates the gifts and sacrifices which our people throughout the educational zone have made that the school might exist and continue its training of our future church leaders. However, the greatest sacrifice is made by the student who has surrendered his life to the Lord and come to be trained for service for which he may never receive adequate financial remuneration. This student says, "Give me a school, a teacher, a bed to sleep upon, and I will in turn give my life to Christ and the church." I am convinced that as long as these high ideals and holy motives prevail on our campus, God will honor us.

We pray that the spirit of Christ will so permeate the atmosphere of this great institution that each student who leaves its halls will be forever influenced for service and holy living.

Sincerely,

Grown Van Degen

Maintenance

One of the most important factors in making the students feel at home while at Olivet is the provision which is made for home-cooked food. "Chef" Murphy has had much experience in this field and competently supervises the planning and preparing of food in our modern kitchen.

"Ed" Brodein's role in campus life as Chief Engineer, is many times enacted behind the scenes. Always willing and ready to meet emergencies, his activities many times are extended until two or three o'clock in the morning. Courteous, efficient, and dependable, "Ed" has proved his worth during his years at Olivet.

DR. C. A. GIBSON

Board of

Dr. Charles A. Gibson, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, has capably served in this capacity since being elected to the position in the Board meeting of May, 1945. He is a firm believer in the ideals and standards of Olivet and has given unselfishly of himself in making the college the notable success that we feel it is. We appreciate the many years of service of this, our able leader.

We, the student body of Olivet Nazarene College, are cognizant of the significant activities of those who have led us forward each year. When these leaders meet on the campus we are proud of them. We welcome them. The wholesome and religious spirit which they display at all times make them men to be truly revered. Progressing steadily forward with their theme of "Education with a Christian Purpose", these men are the bulwarks of our college. It is with great pride that we salute you, Our Board of Trustees.

Rev. C. L. Bradley, genial and open-hearted, has faithfully served the College on the Board of Trustees since 1920, and thus has the distinction of having served the longest of any member on the Board. We sincerely appreciate the definite contribution he has made to the advancement of our school and to the building of God's kingdom.

Junior Class

The spirited class of 1947 combined ingenuity with sportsmanship and distinguished themselves as the "Good Natured Juniors" on a fun-filled sneak to Chicago under the competent sponsorship of Dr. L. G. Mitten.

Thrills and chills were the order of the evening at the Junior presentation of "Midnight in the Graveyard" on All Hallows Eve. A unique chapel program of "you take it, we don't want it" was enjoyed midway in the school term.

A very successful Junior-Senior Formal Banquet brought to a close the activities of the Juniors of 1945-46. Piloting the class through this successful year were James Honaker, president; Catherine Hill, vice-president; Emmabelle Botner, secretary, and Wayne Welton, treasurer.

Sophomore Class

Activities of every Sophomore class are usually traditional, but the class of '48 endeavored to dress up the usual and give it the quality of newness. Sophomores, headed by their president, Wendell Arnold; vicepresident, Eleanor Scharer; secretary, June Measell; and treasurer, Paul Rodgers, carried on an initiation for their underclassmen that started the year with a bang. The flag of friendship was hoisted and hospitality prevailed at the hayloft party given by the initiators for the younger class. After the successful Valentine party, the class looks expectantly to fuller and greater accomplishments with their energetic sponsor, Miss Louise McKinley.

Freshman Class

The Freshman Class proved worthy of being called true Olivetians by undergoing nobly a gruelling initiation at the hands of the Sophomores early in the fall.

Recovering from this orientation, the '49ers resolutely began to distinguish themselves by contributing $100 to the dormitory fund, winning the interclass basketball tourney, and playing a prominent role in the spiritual life of the school.

Paul Wells, president; Dean Fiedler, vicepresident; Maxine Overton, secretary; and Jay Foster, treasurer, are combined to give the largest class in the history of the school capable leadership under the watchful counselling of Professor O. V. Ethington.

FRESHMAN INITIATION

Green caps, paper skirts, pigtails, cold cream, unshaven faces and that ever-present little ditty, "I'm just a silly freshman," launched this year's Freshman Initiation after a "trial" and "sentence" of all freshmen in a chapel program conducted by the dignified Sophomores and presided over by the Sophomore president, Wendell Arnold.

After three days of hilarious gaiety at the expense of the freshmen, a fitting climax was reached in the gymnasium when the entire Freshman Class were guests at a party given by the Sophomores.

TED KERR Secretary-Treasurer

The Student Council is organized each year by the students as a formal means by which they voice their desires in the administration of the school. This group, under the direction of President Norman Bloom, Secretary-Treasurer Ted Kerr, and Faculty Adviser, Dr. L. G. Mitten, has served its purpose well during the school year of 1945-46.

The council sponsored the all-school Christmas banquet with Rev. Ralph Perry, Young People's President of the Chicago Central District, as guest speaker. The council has also sponsored other projects such as student participation in the Kankakee Forum and the Friday chapel programs.

VIRGINIA KONZ Editor-in-Chief

The Glimmerglass staff, under the efficient guidance of the Editor-in-Chief, Virginia Konz, and her assistants, June Measell, Loisanne Nock, and Virginia Arnold, has done a superior job this year in putting out the school paper. They have originated the new departments of We Present, Religion on the Campus, and Letters to the Editor, and have highlighted important articles with excellent pictures.

Jean Strahl, the capable business manager, and her assistant, Gordon Wickersham, have kept the paper adequately supplied with funds throughout the year, thus making the appearance of the paper a regular bi-monthly feature.

With even more improvements in mind, the Glimmerglass expects to take its place among renowned college papers as a truly adequate expression of its students' activities and ideas.

The Laboratory School

The Laboratory School a new innovation on the campus this year, is conducted under the supervision of the Kankakee County Educational System and directed by the Department of Education of the College. Miss Beulah Perkins guided the first four grades, and Miss Ruth Buckloh was the teacher for the fifth grade through the eighth. Fifty-three pupils were enrolled. Although the school is not fully equipped as yet, definite progress is being made, and in the near future, the practice teachers in elementary education will receive their practical training there.

JUNIOR SNEAK

Carefully made plans and a false alarm were the prelude to the ill-fated sneak of the class of '47. Furtively leaving the campus, the Juniors were met in Kankakee, merrily chased out of town, and bid a gala bon voyage by the pursuing Seniors. Said sneak's 10 per cent effectiveness wasn't enough to dampen the enthusiasm of this good-natured class as they headed for the windy city. Meeting at the Forum, the Juniors launched into an excursion packed with fun and delight. Chicago with its Chinatown, Merchandise Mart, Marshall Field's, and Museum of Science and Industry provided the highlights of a never-to-be-forgotten day.

THE SENIOR TRIP

To the Seniors, it was a dream come true. For the early risers its reality began to exist as they boarded the Greyhound cruiser and met the driver, Sammy. Starved Rock at 8 o'clock in the morning surpassed the expectations of the most widely travelled. Mark Twain's Cave in Missouri and the taste of southern hospitality at the hands of Nazarene Missourians are experiences the Seniors will not soon forget. Lincoln's home and tomb at Springfield and the village at New Salem were the historic spots of the trip, and horseback riding at Turkey Run was a fitting climax to a wonderful trip that the seniors will hold in their hearts forever.

Faculty Ducking?

"Thrice the brinded cat hath mewed, thrice and once the hedgepig whined"; ghosts slinking through the eerie graveyard, wildcats and witches and weirdsome things, all contributed each his pang to make the "Midnight in the Graveyard" this hurly-burly Halloween an experience of shivers and quivers. The inner sanctum of the ghost walk, where fair come out foul and foul was fair, lent its spine-rending scares to the squeemish atmosphere of the party while the mummied King Tut and Jezebel carried on for the Junior class. Then in merry wassail, cups were tilted and ghost toast devoured. Leaving only crumbs for the spirits, every satisfied soul dragged heavy feet out into the shadowed night of this All Hallow's Eve.

CHRISTMAS

This year the Student Council again sponsored the annual all-school formal Christmas Banquet. This banquet has become one of the outstanding cultural events of the first semester. The speaker this year was Rev. Ralph Perry, president of the Chicago Central District N.Y.P.S. Rev. Perry delivered an appropriate address which held the attention of the audience from the first joke to the last challenge. Dinner music was furnished by the String Ensemble. The Treble Clef Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Naomi Larsen, presented a group of choral numbers, of which "The Carol of the Bells' and "Jesus, Thou Dear Babe Divine" were especially appropriate for the season. The Choir was dressed in formal attire and the diversity of the colored gowns added bright variety to the already colorful setting of Christmas trees and overhead streamers.

THE COLLEGE CHURCH

The College Church, providing the student with a church home while he is in college, has been fortunate to have Rev. Ross E. Price as pastor this year. Rev. Price is a young man who understands young people's problems and is a true spiritual adviser. He is a forceful preacher and leader as well.

The Sunday School, with Dr. L. G. Mitten as superintendent, is well organized and progressive. Various youth departments, including the N.Y.P.S., the Hi N. Y., and the two young Women's Foreign Missionary Societies, and the student prayer and fasting league, all provide for the outlet of many and varied student talents.

The Chancel and Vesper choirs, under the direction of Professors Larsen and Ethington, respectively, with Miss Ella Leona Gale at the organ and Miss Barbara Mc-Clain at the piano, provide an excellent musical program.

THE CHANCEL CHOIR

The College Church is the center of all religious activity for the student body and the immediate vicinity. The Sunday morning worship offers the most important and most impressive of all the services that are conducted on the campus. The Chancel Choir was organized in order to contribute toward a well-rounded and complete service.

The Chancel Choir is made up of a select group of college students with each member expressing his attitude toward God through the medium of music. Soloists for the services are selected from the Choir.

Fulfilling its task during the past year, the Chancel Choir, under the direction of Professor Walter B. Larsen, and accompanied at the organ by Miss Ella Leona Gale, has added divine inspiration and beauty to our Sunday morning worship.

The N.Y.P.S. has contributed to the spiritual atmosphere of the school by presenting various interesting and inspirational programs. The four groups into which the student body was divided were headed by Jay Foster, Paul Wells, Pershing Weaver and Merton Wilson, with their respective assistants. Each group presented a program in turn, thus giving to every student an opportunity for participation in religious activity.

STUDENT PASTORS

Each week-end, a group of ministerial students leave the campus to assume pastoral responsibilities in various outlying churches in four districts. The experience thus gained and the opportunity to put into immediate use the knowledge obtained from the classroom, helps Olivet to produce well-trained, practical-minded ministers. These pastorates are a great asset to the students, and the knowledge that they are not only preparing, but already working for the Lord in their chosen field, more than compensates for the burdens and sacrifices this group must make to carry on its two-fold task.

CHAPEL ROSTER

Dr. Hugh C. Benner, President of the Nazarene Theological Seminary at Kansas City, Missouri, was the speaker for the 1945-46 series of the Leist Foundation Lectures which are sponsored annually by Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Leist. His theme for the evening lectures was "As One Having Authority". In the morning lectures he spoke on general themes which were inspiring to the layman as well as the preacher.

Early in the year, Rev. H. Dale Mitchell, pastor of Chicago First Church, presented a lecture on how to build the Sunday School. His message was both challenging and inspirational.

Dr. Evelyn Wittoff, well-known Nazarene missionary doctor, was also a visitor to our chapel this year. Her account of her experiences while interned by the Japanese in Manila were filled with pathos, suffering and glorious victory.

The student body also became more closely acquainted with Rev. Paul Hill of Flushing, New York. Rev. Hill spoke not only in chapel but to various classes and organizations as well.

THE STUDENT PRAYER CHAPEL

Bennett, Van Duyn, Higgins, Click, Weaver

The Student Prayer Band, under the leadership of Charles Higgins, president, and Dr. Grover Van Duyn, sponsor, fills one of the greatest needs in the lives of the students by providing means of worship and fellowship through the daily prayer meetings and the varied inspirational programs presented. Highlights of the year were the sponsorship of a fifteenminute radio program, "Afternoon Meditations," each Wednesday, and the special revival in December with Professor O. V. Ethington as the evangelist. "Holiness Week", Christian Workers' night, special request programs, evangelistic messages, and testimony meetings all help to make "Student Prayer Meeting" a vital part of our lives in Olivet.

CALLED MISSIONARY BAND

The Called Missionary Band, led by President James Honaker and Dr. Van Duyn, sponsor, has been especially active this year. The candle lighting consecration service, at which Professor L. A. Marquart presented a stirring message, a program for medical missions given by the W.F.M.S., and the annual breakfast were the outstanding events of the year. These, with the bi-monthly meetings of the group, added much to the interest and inspiration of the seventy-five members.

ORPHEUS CHOIR

The Orpheus Choir, founded by Professor Walter B. Larsen fourteen years ago, has as its objective "A Ministry in Music". Its members are carefully selected and thoroughly trained for months before a public appearance is permitted. Thus a high standard of performance has been constantly maintained.

Throughout its history the choir has also endeavored not only to be technically correct, but to sing with that interpretation and inspiration which can come only from those who have experienced the truths of which they sing.

Highlighting the numerous appearances and events of this season for the group was the Spring Tour of Northern Indiana and Michigan. The repertoire included selections from Bach, Handel, and Rossini, in addition to a variety of well-known hymns, spirituals and typical American songs.

The personnel of this year's choir numbered forty, including Esther B. Snyder, pianist, and Ella Leona Gale, organist.

MARY COLLINS Violinist

SENIOR RECITALS

An admirable command, both of the technique of the violin and of musical style, has been exhibited by Mary Collins, violinist, throughout her appearances. The most striking feature of her performances has been her melodic grace and charm. She has displayed an artistic musical taste and winsome personality.

JAMES HORINE Tenor

LOIS GRAY Contralto

The clowning, yet outstanding capabilities of Jimmy Horine, dramatic tenor, has delighted his listeners, and made him a popular performer. Endowed with an extraordinarily wide range, combined with flexibility and ease in producing tones, he projects his infectious personality into his performances, always being assured of an enthusiastic reception.

Performing with sincerity and expressiveness, Lois Gray has displayed excellent musicianship in her superb performances. Possessing a fine sense of musical interpretation, and a commendable technical proficiency, she has the ability to create within the listener the mood of her selection. The rich, full tones of her contralto voice never fail to warm the hearts of her audiences.

TREBLE CLEF CHOIR

This splendid all-girls' choir is rapidly forging to the front as one of Olivet's outstanding musical organizations.

Under the baton of Mrs. Naomi Larsen, the Choir has demonstrated real artistry in its public appearances. Singing with flawless precision and yet with a wide range of interpretation, this group has never failed to thrill the listening public and bring to its attention the splendid achievements in our School of Music.

Public performances were given in the College Church, Chapel, Christmas Banquet, and the Women's Club of Kankakee.

A concert tour of Southern Illinois was also made by the choir, which proved to be the outstanding event of their season.

VIKING MALE CHORUS

Under the direction of Professor George A. Snyder, the Viking Male Chorus has steadily advanced from a comparatively new organization to one which is accepted as an integral part of our ensemble organizations.

Hard work, patience and perseverance have their rewards, as has been amply demonstrated by this year's Chorus in its public appearances.

The culmination of the year's work was reached in a spring concert tour of the Chicago Central and Iowa Districts.

The personnel of this year's chorus numbered eighteen, with Miss Elsie Stull as accompanist.

FIRST ROW: Betty Evans, Pearl Gray, Rosemary Arnett, Gilda Rae Sigler, Prof. O. V. Ethington, Luella Cummings, Wandalene Duncan, Jeanette Johnson, Gwendolyn Buffington.

THIRD ROW: Harold Adams, Ray Brodein, Elmer Brodein, Robert Medcalf, Ortive Welch.

HIGH SCHOOL GLEE CLUB

The High School Choir, under the direction of Professor Oakley V. Ethington, is carefully selected by a system of individual tryouts. Regular practice sessions began soon after registration, and after many hours of practice, the choir has developed into a fine-voiced group, with well-balanced sections, and exact response to the baton. The choir has appeared in the Sunday afternoon vesper hour and the Sunday evening services.

TRIOS

Numerous student groups leave the campus each week-end to minister in various churches throughout the Educational Zone. Outstanding among these groups are the Michigan Trio, the Gospel Trio, the Lyric Trio, and the King's Men. Many pastors availed themselves of the opportunity to engage these consecrated, talented young people for week-end meetings or special evangelistic services.

MICHIGAN TRIO June McGuire, Ruth Everett, Naomi Bearinger.

KINGS' MEN TRIO: Howard Small, Ted Holstein, Paul Studebaker.

LYRIC TRIO:

Marjorie Worst, Lois Gray, Mary Collins.

THE BAND

With Professor Don J. Gibson directing, the Olivet Band has enjoyed a very successful year.

Radio

GEORGE A. SNYDER Director of Radio

This year, a radio department under the direction of Professor George A. Snyder, has been organized and put into operation. Radio studios have been constructed on the fourth floor of the Administration Building and are equipped with completely modern amplifying and recording apparatus.

During the school year, over one hundred and fifty young people, consisting of soloists, speakers, and choir members, participated in the Olivet Radio Broadcasts over the facilities of radio station WJOL. Programs regularly aired on this station were "Afternoon Meditations", a program designed for inspiration through words and music, and "Highlights in Music", featuring outstanding music from the classics.

The sweet harmony of the Michigan Trio, with the blended voices of Ruth Everett, June McGuire, and Naomi Bearinger, has been a regular feature on "Afternoon Meditations".

James Green, control room engineer and operator of the campus sound equipment, prepares to make another record.

Herbert Kohler and Edgar Scammahorn, sports announcers, bring another ''play by play'' description of a basketball game in the college gym.

Bernie Smith, versatile radio announcer, gives one of his constructive and interesting lectures on radio broadcasting. He has the unusual record of over 6,000 hours before the microphone, acquired before coming to Olivet.

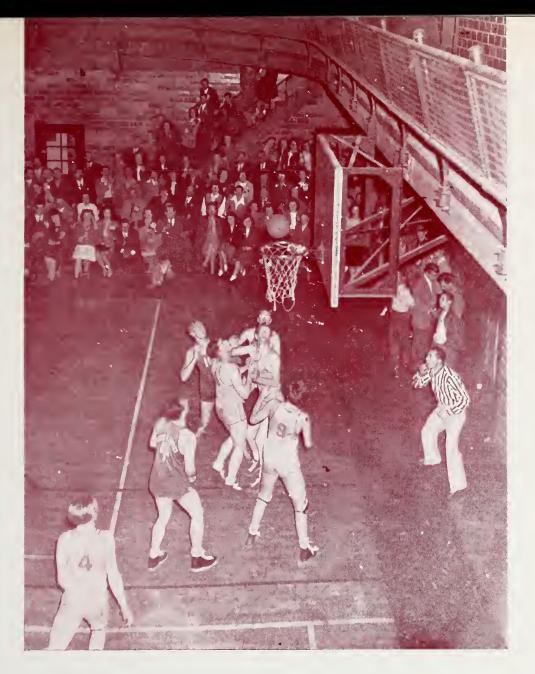

The Orpheus Radio Quartet has brought to the radio listeners the gospel message in song on the program, "Afternoon Meditations".

Olivet's three athletic societies offer the basis for our intramural athletics. The 1945-46 season has been outstanding with a fine quality of ball being exhibited on the "hard wood", "diamond", and "field". Lending much to the achievements of the societies has been the effective leadership of the officers. The Trojans had as their commanders, Donita Von Seggen and Red Williams, with Dale Fruehling as president. The Spartans were piloted by Jay Foster, president, with Marge Howe and Ray Gardner, coaches. Norman Bloom led the hard-fighting Indians, and Martha Lindquist and Jim Green served as coaches.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Professor Ronald D. Jones, athletic director—dynamic—altruistic—resumed his campus activities this year after a leave of absence spent at the University of Wisconsin, where he received his M.A. degree and did residence work on his Ph.D. degree. Under his guidance, Olivet's athletics has reached a new high in interest and participation, and his stabilizing influence on student life has been indeed far-reaching.

Ronald D. Jones Athletic Director

June Starr—friendly and vivacious, capably instructed the women's physical education classes this year, teaching skill and coordination, with an emphasis on health and good sportsmanship.

Henry Smith—better known as Smitty—jovial and impartial, has competently refereed all men's and women's society games this season.

TIP-

November ninth brought to the Field house of O.N.C. another Tip-Off game between the Alumni and the "O" club. Homecoming day activities, with Jim Weeks as Master of Ceremonies, began Friday morning at chapel time. The chapel program included the Olivet Pep Song played by the band under the direction of Don Gibson and prophecies by loyal fans. Dr. Selden D. Kelley delivered an address at the annual Homecoming Dinner which challenged everyone present. After the dinner, the guests and students crowded into the Field House for the sensational game.

As a special attraction between halves, the band, led by high-stepping Drum Major Don Wellman, and the Majorettes, Ruth Pusey and Janet Sumney, made various formations, culminating in the purple-robed Orpheus Choir's formation of an impressive "A" enclosed by the large "O" formed by the gold-sweatered band. Under the direction of Professor Larsen, the various musical organizations presented patriotic and school songs. The game ended in a victory for the Alumni with the score 36-30.

Those chosen to return to represent the undefeated Alumni included: Wilbur Beeson, Fred Chalfant, James Green, Paul Oman, Jesse Martin, Orville Maish, John Hieftje, James Shaw, Norman Bloom, and Irving Sullivan. Coaching the Alumni through to their fourth consecutive year as the Undefeated Champs of the Tip-Off game, was Marvin Taylor.

The "O" Club was represented by Selden Kelly, President; Dale Fruehling, Glen Williams, Bob Medcalf, Dan Fearn, Ray Gardner, Dave King, and Jay Foster. Carl Clendenen, on furlough from the U. S. Navy, also played for the "O" Club. Professor Jones expertly coached the fellows who provided stiff competition for their opponents.

THE SWIMMING POOL

The swimming pool, prided possession of Olivet, has added many happy moments of relaxation for Olivet swimming enthusiasts. Under the direction of Miss Evelyn Duff, winner of Michigan State diving and swimming honors, girls have found swimming a treat. A complete class of beginners was advanced to "deep water status" in one semester.

The men's swimming program has been under the direction of Professor Jones.

SATURDAY NIGHT

The Olivet Field House afforded the setting for many memorable events this year. Not the least of these were the Saturday nights of supervised recreation. Under the direction of Professor Jones, the 'gym'' supplied a variety of activities for all students.

Table tennis proved to be one of the most popular sports this year; the interest came to a climax in the tournament held April fifth. Learning to serve the shuttlecock was a fascinating endeavor for many who had never played badminton. Co-recreation, in the form of volley-ball, gave rise to girlish screams and many exhibitions of manly skill. Shuffleboard also came into its own on these Saturday night occasions.

Olivet's indoor track was much in use, with the potential "Gill Dodds" pounding the cork as they raced around the oval. Tumbling and apparatus work challenged fellows and girls alike, and crossing the gym via the rings was mastered by not a few.

ACTIVITIES

The swimmimng pool was open. The women's hour was under the supervision of Miss Duff, and Professor Jones supervised the men's hour.

Saturday night may have been the "loneliest night" in the year for some, but for Olivet students, the gymnasium offered a place of fellowship and relaxation.

"If days grow dark, if care and pain
Press close and sharp on heart and brain,
Then lovely pictures still shall bloom
Upon the walls of memory's room."
